

Volunteers needed for Bede's Bazaar

St Bede's Anglican Parish Semaphore

Bede's Bazaar is a not-for-profit op-shop operated by the church for the benefit of the community of Semaphore and district. St Bede's is committed to its community and aims to serve all people without judgement or discrimination but with acceptance, fairness, and loving support. Similarly, in volunteer recruitment, there is no discrimination based on age, religion, sex, sexual orientation, race, or disability. St. Bede's volunteers work in a happy environment.

Location

Bede's Bazaar operates in St Bede's Community Hall at 200 Military Road, Semaphore, at Bus Stop 44 (Routes 157, 157X, 333, 652, A017)

Bede's Bazaar

- provides good quality clothing for adults and some household goods at low prices
- welcomes all people and treats them with respect
- donates clothing to refugees
- is staffed entirely by volunteers
- operates under the guidelines of AnglicareSA
- is not for profit
- operates from 10.00-3.00 on Monday, Thursday, and Friday and 11.00-3.00 on Tuesday and Wednesday. Sunday market once a month 9.00-4.00

Volunteers

- join a happy team of volunteers
- work on a roster according to the agreement of days and hours
- enjoy an inclusive, harassment-free workplace
- sort donations, display clothing and household items, service and sales for customers,
- have opportunities for creative suggestions about the operation of the shop

Volunteers may or may not be registered with Centrelink.

People interested in volunteering should contact St Bede's for an application form on email: office@stbedessemaphore.org.au or phone 84495064 and leave a message with contact details.

Someone will be in touch with you.