

Seeking your help

We're inviting consumers and carers to share their feedback to help improve the way we deliver care.

What's it about?

The Boorloo (Perth) Public Health Unit helps to manage infectious diseases in Perth by providing public health advice and support to the community.

Can I join in?

We'd love to hear from you if you:

- Could provide feedback on our text message for whooping cough
- We welcome people from all backgrounds and experiences—your perspective is important.

What will I be doing?

You will:

- Be sent a "test" message about whooping cough.
- Be asked to complete a short survey about whether the information in the message was easy to understand.

What support will I get?

We will send:

- The text message and survey link.
- As this is a short survey, it is unpaid.
- It should take less than 10 minutes of your time.

How do I join?

If you are interested, please email alex.myszka@health.wa.gov.au.

- Use the subject line: Whooping cough survey
- In the body of the email, please tell us your name, email, and mobile phone number.

Questions?

- Call Boorloo PHU on 1300 623 292 and ask for Alex, or email alex.myszka@health.wa.gov.au with the subject line, Whooping cough survey.

Survey responses must be received by 30 October 2026.
